The Jumbunna Pathways Program

UTS College, together with the Jumbunna Institute for Indigenous Education and Research is committed to providing support for Indigenous students to succeed at university and into the future.

UTS acknowledges the Gadigal and Guring-gai people of the Eora Nation upon whose ancestral lands our university now stands. We would also like to pay respect to the Elders both past and present, acknowledging them as the traditional custodians of knowledge for these places.

About UTS College

UTS College is the leading pathway provider to UTS, offering an introduction to university, and providing all the support that Indigenous students need to succeed.

Succeeding at university requires a supportive environment, strong peer networks, and committed teachers. At UTS College we provide exactly that.

Why study at UTS College?

- Fast track* into the second year of your UTS degree
- Study the same subjects as first year UTS students
- Subjects are designed in collaboration with UTS
- Access to world-class facilities and iconic new buildings at UTS
- Learn in a supportive environment and caring culture

*Subject to successful completion of a diploma with the required Grade Point Average (GPA). Not all diplomas fast-track to second year UTS. The point where you enter your UTS degree depends on the course and major you choose.

Meet Taylor, proud Kamilaroi woman and UTS College Diploma of Science graduate.

Diploma of Science

“ I’ve always wanted to go to university. I know it’s a milestone for my family. Dad was so happy about the scholarship and I know he’ll be happy to see me graduate.

I had some great teachers at UTS College. I did my very best and the supportive environment made a big difference.”

About the scholarship

The UTS College Indigenous scholarships are available to students who identify as Aboriginal and /or Torres Strait Islander and apply to study at UTS via The Jumbunna Pathways Program. This allows you to choose one of seven UTS College diplomas. Scholarships range from $34,000 to $42,500, depending on the diploma you choose.

If you qualify, you'll receive one-on-one help from tutors and have access to support services at UTS.
